Re: Captain Kirk Felker Completes FBI Regional Command College

---

The Alliance Police Department is pleased to share that Captain Kirk Felker has successfully completed the FBI Regional Command College. This intensive, three-day training course, geared toward senior law enforcement executives, covered valuable training on key leadership topics including:

- Media Training
- Crisis Management
- Task Forces
- Child Abduction
- Cryptocurrency
- And more

The training was held at the FBI Omaha Field Office, at no cost to the department. The Alliance Police Department is committed to seeking out training and career advancement opportunities for our employees. Special thanks to the FBI Omaha Field Office, and Special Agent in Charge, Eugene Kowel for his efforts to provide training like this for departments across the state.
